Wilderness

Deep inside each one of us there is a wilderness
A wild and secret place where our dreams find release
Where we are children once again, living in an unspoiled land
Of earth and trees and sky and peace

Chorus:

Save the wilderness, save the wilderness
It's a part of us, the part that sets us free
Save the wilderness, save the wilderness
If it fades and dies then so do we

This is the age of dark machines that rule our lives and rule our dreams
The tapestry of living green is fading fast to grey
Our future has been bought and sold, we've all been paid in fools' gold
And there's a price we still must pay

Small light in the endlessness of the cold dark universe
Haven in the emptiness, bright star of the unknown
Slowly spins our planet Earth in her blue-green loveliness
Our precious lonely fragile home
