A Change in the Weather

Why do I always dream of home when rain comes tumblin' down?
Maybe 'cause the rain on the roof makes a lonesome sound
And why do I always feel this way every time it rains?
Like I'm just markin' time and waitin' for the weather to change

Chorus:

Like a river my life hurries by
If I jump in perhaps I might drown
But if I don't then my spirit could die
Before a change in the weather comes round

And why do I always feel the call of the far side of the hill?
Never stayed in one place too long and I guess I never will
And why do I always turn away from the offer of a lovin' heart?
Maybe lovin's too painful to stop and too easy to start
