THE PROMISE

The journey's over, now here's an end to it
It's been too short by far but you know
I wouldn't have missed one precious moment of it
There's a time to live, and a time to die

A time to love, a time to say goodbye
I remember what you once said to me
When our love was young, when the world was young
And so were we.....

Chorus:

You said "I can't give you silver, I can't bring you gold
Can't stop the world from turnin' or you and I from growin' old
I can't foretell the future, the where, the when, the why
But I swear I'll love you darlin' until I die"

My heart is breakin' but I will shed no tears
I will not give way to my grief
At least not now, not here
I'll wait until I close the door on our silent and empty home

Then I'll cry for you, when I'm all alone
I can't forget what you once said to me
When our love was young, when the world was young
And so were we.....
