Twenty Years Ago

Twenty years ago in a country far away
I marched for the same cause I'm marchin' today
For a world without shadows and a future without fear
Twenty years ago and a long way from here

Chorus:

I shall not fail I shall not stumble
I shall never give up the struggle
Till morning comes and the shadows pass
And we all walk in the light at last

Twenty years ago I remember how we sang
And waved our banners proudly as we marched arm in arm
For a world we thought worth saving we lifted up our voice
Peace or the holocaust, you know we had no choice

But here I am today and twenty years have gone
The shadows are still with us, the struggle still goes on
The clouds of fear still haunt us, and yet we all still try
To blow this world straight to hell, and still I don't know why

And in twenty years from now if we get to live that long
If I'm needed I'll be marchin' and I'll still be singin' songs
So let's all stand together, vow never to give in
You know that we are right, and you know that we must win
